

Job of the Week:

Carnival Games Chair

Want to play a key role at the best Halloween Carnival in town?

The Games Chair is where it's at!

We're looking for a Halloween-loving volunteer (or two!) to provide organization and support to the games used at the Miramar Ranch carnival. Some games are rented but most are owned and stored on site. Some games require supplies to be purchased each year, and some games are completely set to go. Got some new ideas? You can even invent and build your own carnival games! We need a team to prepare for the carnival in the months before and help assist the game booths the day-of.

If you are interested, please consider shadowing the Games Chair this year to be prepared for next year. There are many parts and pieces to this position, but when it all comes together, it's AMAZING!

Contact Natalia Moorhead to inquire:
natalia.rissolo@gmail.com.

But act now! The carnival is only two weeks away! Happy Haunting!
