Grab your mom or favorite grown-up and join us in the MPR as you prove your worth by being clever enough to avoid being captured by the Empire. Rebel Mind Training is an hour-long mass escape room game designed specifically for you and your child. You will be challenged to try and work your way to the end of a series of puzzles before time runs out and you both are shipped off to the Empire! We have prepared a full rebel training course full of challenges for strengthening your skills. You will have one hour to try to solve the trials we have left for you! Succeed and we'll be able to bring you on as a full-fledged rebel. Fail, and we'll probably have to turn you over to the Empire for knowing too much. Do you have what it takes to complete your quest to the Lunch Arbor, where the delicious rewards await you?
