

Respect

At Miramar Ranch, we practice respect:

- We treat others the way we want to be treated.
- We take time to learn about, and give consideration to, our differences.
- We listen and do not interrupt.
- We are on time.
- We use good manners.
- We follow the rules.
- We resolve problems peacefully, without insults or hurting others.
- We take good care of ourselves, our things and our environment.
